FOREWORD

For all graduating seniors the transition from adolescence to adulthood means a new life, another beginning.

What great challenge awaits us? It seems but yesterday that we heard the strong, vibrant, and determined words of President Kennedy's inaugural address: "Let us begin!"

Tomorrow calls us to action; but inexperience makes us hesitant in meeting the unknown. In our uncertainty we look with admiration, trust, and love to the image of President John F. Kennedy. The profile in courage which he has emblazoned into the annals of history is an enduring source of guidance and inspiration.

This great leader instilled in America's youth the spirit to seek the challenge of new frontiers. Let us, then step forward into life with conviction and courage; and perhaps we, too, may someday carve our profiles into the records of time. . . .

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
35th President of the United States
Born May 29, 1917
Inaugurated January 20, 1961
Died November 22, 1963

"A light has gone out, but a greater light has lit the world . . ."

MR. ARMAND BERTHIAUME

DEDICATION

We the class of 1964 are proud to dedicate the pages of our high school life, the Killonian Yearbook, to you, Mr. Berthiaume. This thirty-fifth volume may seem a small tribute, yet it contains deep appreciation. The sentiments of gratitude hidden in each page could never be transformed into a tangible state.

For over a decade you have taught us the fundamentals of sportsmanship, and you have guided both baseball and basketball teams to great achievements. As our "gym" teacher you have kept our school physically sound; as our driver education instructor you have instilled a sense of caution so necessary in driving; and as a leader your mild ways upheld by a strong personality have set an enduring example for us to follow.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

"The task is to fix a course for the future . . .

ROBERT D. PAYNE
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Members of the Class of 1964:

"The Past you have led together, the Future is yours alone." It is my hope that your school experiences have prepared you well for the future.

It is my wish that the future will hold for you the challenge to make this world a better place in which to live. Your success will depend to a large degree on your mental stability, your moral strength and your will to persevere.

Congratulations to all.

ROBERT D. PAYNE
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Killingly School System, Board of Education

Message to the Seniors:

There was something in the life of John F. Kennedy with which each of us could identify. For this reason alone his death was a personal tragedy to all Americans.

President Kennedy lived for a purpose. He entered enthusiastically into the things he did. And while fulfilling his mission, he tried to achieve balance in his life. He gave as much attention to the cultivation of his mind as to the development of his physical mental health. For him life was an unending challenge to be met with optimism, courage, sincerity, and altruism. Leadership meant doing what it was his destiny to fulfill.

Now that the torch of leadership has again been passed to others among us to bear, may the eternal flame lighted to perpetuate his memory keep burning in our consciousness a high ambition for those noble values which he so steadfastly espoused.

Class Ode:

Our days with you, dear Killingly,
Are ending here today
You've held the torch that guided us.
And helped us on our way
Our claims to greatness aren't yet made
Success is never sure
Yet you have given us the aid
Of knowledge, strong and pure.

Tomorrow's world is beckoning
To us the future calls
But you hold our past memories
Within your ivy walls
And as these days come to a close
The time of parting nears
The joys we've had the friends we've known
Will last throughout the years.

Chorus:
Alma Mater — guiding light
We give our praise to thee
You've done your part; you're in our heart
We thank you, Killingly.

Coach Richard Smith, Tri-captains — Erik Lindstrom, Normand Chartier, Robert DeAngelis.

The 1963 Redmen, under the able coaching of Mr. Norman Allard and led by tri-captains Robert DeAngelis, Normand Chartier, and Erik Lindstrom, had a very successful 7-2 record.

The only losses came at the hands of East Greenwich, R.I., and tough E.C.C.C. foe St. Bernards, as we finished second in the E.C.C. for two consecutive years.

The 22 seniors leave Coach Allard with a very respectable 14-3 record for our two years with him.

We the class of 1964 wish next year's team the very best of luck.
